

I am disgusted by Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.

This is a clear
example of the dangers of media
consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. If they are going to air
such obviously
partisan
programming, they should be compelled
to give equal time
to an opposing view.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
